This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. You can search through the full text of this book on the web at `http://books.google.com/`

Preface.

THE present Volume consists of a literal transcript of a Manuscript in the British Museum numbered 1562 in the Harleian Collection. In vol. ii., p. 126, of the Catalogue of the Harleian MSS. in the British Museum, printed in 1808, it is thus described:—

AN HERALDICAL BOOK IN FOL. WRITTEN & TRICKED BY Mr RICHARD MUNDY; CONTAINING

1. An Alphabetical Table of Surnames: referring to the following Armes & Descents.
2. Armes of the Gentry of the County of Sussex, hastily tricked (by way of alphabet) within printed Escocheons.
3. Vissitation of the County of Sussex, made (as some thinke) in anno 1530, by Thomas Benolte, Clarenceux.

   Continued and enlarged with,

4. The Vissitation of the same County made in annis 1633 & 1634, by John Phillipott, Somerset Herald, & George Owen, Yorke Herald: for Sir John Borough, Garter, & Sir Richard St. George, Clarenceux.
5. With many Enlargements & Continuations (with Red, as well as Black Ink) by Mr Mundy chiefly, & by Mr Dale.

   Here are also

6. Many additional Descents, not registered in the above-mentioned Visitations; entred by Mr Mundy.

   Other Observables may be,

7. Notes taken in Arundell Church, 56 [page 75].
8. Some Proofs from private Evidences & Seals; illustrating divers Descents.
9. Note taken in Cuckfield Church, 147 [page 165].
10. Divers Armes & Descents added by more recent hands, 202 [page 209].

The following List of Visitations of Sussex, extracted from page 174 of Sims's Manual (London, 1856), will be found of use for reference:—

The reader is referred to "An Index to the Pedigrees and Arms contained in the Heralds' Visitations, and other Genealogical Manuscripts in the British Museum," by R. Sims (London, 1849), pp. 285 to 294, wherein will be found an alphabetical list of the families whose pedigrees or arms are referred to in the MSS. above enumerated, bearing this mark [†].

On page 132 of "An Index to Printed Pedigrees," by Charles Bridger (London, 1867), the following reference—

> "168. Visitation of Sussex, 1570. Foolscap folio. Privately printed by Sir Thomas Phillipps, Bart. [57 pedigrees.] The same volume contains the Visitations of Oxfordshire, 1574 and 1634"— is included under the County of Sussex.

With reference to the Visitations of Sussex, the late Dr. Marshall, F.S.A., York Herald (a member of the Council), in his "Notes on the Heralds' Visitations," which appeared in the "Genealogist," New Series, vol. iii., p. 36 (London, 1886), states :—

> "If we except such pedigrees as have been printed by Berry in his Genealogies of this County, nothing has been done towards printing its Visitations, which were made in 1530 by Benolte (College of Arms, D. 13), in 1574-5 by Cooke (College of Arms, D. 11 and G. 18), in 1634 by St. George, containing 300 pedigrees (College of Arms, C. 27), and lastly by Bysshe, began in 1662 and finished in 1668 (College of Arms, D. 16)."

Anything within brackets, thus [ ], will of course be understood as explanatory interpolations by the Editor.

An Alphabetical Table of Surnames,

REFERRING TO THE FOLLOWING ARMES AND DESCENTS.

[MEM.—The numbers given against the names are the folio numbers of the MS. The surnames in this Table, comprised within folios 1 to 4 inclusive, will be found in the armoury in the Appendix (pp. 212—217) in alphabetical order. For the remainder of the surnames the reader is referred to the Index at the end of the volume. The Pedigrees are printed in SMALL CAPITALS and the Arms are printed in italics.—EDITOR.]

Report for the Year 1904.

The Council have to report that at and since the Annual General Meeting, held on the 15th day of February 1904, six new Subscribers have joined the Society, of whom two are Subscribers to the Register Section.

During the same period the Society has lost five Subscribers (of whom two belonged to the Register Section) by death; seven Subscribers (two of whom belonged to the Register Section) have resigned.

The number on the Roll on the 31st of December 1904 is two hundred and ninety-nine, of whom one hundred and seventy-two are Subscribers to the Register Section.

"Lincolnshire Pedigrees," Vol. III., edited by the Rev. Canon A. R. Maddison, M.A., F.S.A., forming the fifty-second volume of the Publications, has been issued to the Subscribers for 1904.

The Fourth Volume of "Lincolnshire Pedigrees," containing the remainder and an Index to the whole, is progressing, and will shortly go to press.

"The Visitations of Sussex in 1530 and 1633-4," under the editorship of W. Bruce Bannerman, Esq., F.S.A., is in the press, and will form the volume for 1905.

"The Visitations of Berkshire," to be edited by W. H. Rylands, Esq., F.S.A., is also well in hand.

"The Registers of St. Helen's, Bishopsgate, E.C.," transcribed by the Rector, the Rev. J. A. L. Airey, M.A., and edited by W. Bruce Bannerman, Esq., F.S.A., forming the thirty-first volume of the Registers, has been issued to the Subscribers for 1904.

"The Registers of St. Martin Outwich, Threadneedle Street, London," are in the press, and will be followed by "The Registers of St. Paul, Covent Garden."

The Balance Sheet for the year, duly audited, is appended to the Report.

By Order of the Council,

W. BRUCE BANNERMAN,

Secretary.
